

CFUW NORTH VANCOUVER

OCTOBER 11, 2012

BC Children and Families in Poverty: A Panel Discussion

CFUW North Vancouver, in support of BC Council's Poverty Initiative, has invited a panel of guest speakers who are involved in advocating for children and their families. Learn about children, families in distress, poverty, and plans to address the issues. This meeting is open to guests.

Panelists:

- Pippa Rowcliffe – A Director at the Human Early Learning Partnership (HELP) – UBC. Pippa oversees a communications strategy to effectively describe and promote HELP and to disseminate research findings.
- Sharon Gregson – Coalition of Child Care Advocacy. Sharon works with advocacy groups at the local and national levels. She is also a trustee on the Vancouver Board of Education.
- Dr. Carol Matusicky, PhD – Community Activist and recently retired executive director of the BC Council of Families.
- Marg Picard – CFUW BC Council. Chair of the Advocacy Committee and of the CFUW BC Council Poverty Initiative

Location: Royal Canadian Legion, Front Meeting Room
123 West 15th Street, North Vancouver

Time: 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

More info and this poster to download at -- <http://cfuwnvww.vcn.bc.ca>