

Workshops in progress planned for Saturday afternoon

- Engaging our Society in conversation, dialogue and reflection on "Reconciliation".
- Gender Identity for Youth, what does this mean?
- Creating the multicultural society with our communities
- Current Issues: Taking care of our Environment
- Child and Youth Poverty: Taking steps forward in community and in our province
- What is happening with our Resolutions: Does anyone care?

Creating Connections
Bridging the Gaps

North Vancouver Holiday Inn
April 20-22 2018

Consider these tours for Friday Afternoon

- Art Gallery
- Craft Beer Industry
- Walk in Maplewood Flats
- Tour of Capilano University
- Shopping on the North Shore
- Hop-on Hop-off Bus: Vancouver and the North Shore

KEYNOTES / WORKSHOPS

FRIDAY OPENING: BERNARD RICHARD: PROVINCIAL REPRESENTATIVE FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

SATURDAY:

Sue Trubant, Teacher in the Prince George School District Sue Trubant has developed Gender Identify programs that inform and support students at the secondary level in Prince George.

Dr. Lolehawk Laura Buker is a member of the Lake Babine Nation and the Sto:lo Nation I see my work now as engaging our Canadian society in conversation, dialogue, and reflection on "reconciliation."

Trish Neufeld is an award-winning writer / director / producer who started her film career at Capilano College, producing a wide array of work. Her signature piece is on capturing family memories.